

Documentation requirements for each covered expense can be found within your relocation policy. Expenses typically require an itemized receipt and/or proof of payment.

Please use Table of Contents on page 2 to locate specific information needed for common expense types, including examples of receipt requirements. Please note, your policy may not cover all expenses in this guide.

Itemized Receipt Requirements

For standard expenses, an itemized receipt must clearly show each of the following:

- 1 Merchant location
- 2 Incurred date(s)
- 3 Details of what was purchased
- 4 Amount for each item purchased

Proof of Payment Requirements

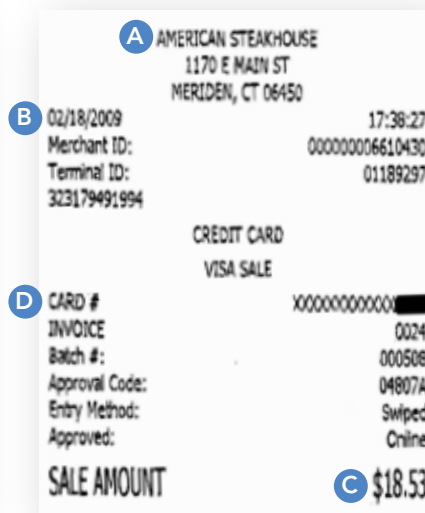

Proof of payment can be contained within the itemized receipt or within a separate document. Proof of payment must clearly show each of the following:

- A Name of merchant
- B Date of purchase
- C Total amount
- D Indication payment was made. Below are examples:
 - Credit card confirmation on receipt (name of credit card or last four digits of credit card)
 - Zero balance and/or paid indication on receipt
 - Copy of front and back of cashed check
 - Credit card or bank statement
 - Letter indicating funds received
 - Notation that expense is non-refundable
